Desmond T. Doss was a Bible-carrying medic. He wouldn't carry weapons, because he was a conscientious objector. Yet, he won our nation's highest military award, The Medal of Honor:

April 29, '45, Okinawa - "Private Doss refused to seek cover and remained in the fire-swept area with the many stricken (75), carrying them one by one . . . "

May 4 - "Advancing through a shower of grenades to within eight yards of enemy . . . where he dressed his comrades' wounds . . ."

May 21 — "He was seriously wounded . . . rather than call another aid man from cover, he cared for his own injuries . . . litter bearers reached him . . . seeing a more critically wounded man . . . crawled off litter . . . again struck . . . with magnificent fortitude, he bound a rifle stock to his shattered arm as a splint and crawled 300 yards . . ."

"I felt my buddies were my brothers," said Desmond, a devout Seventh Day Adventist. "My great source of strength was the daily study of the Bible and prayer . . . When I talked with God, I seemed to lose my sense of fear . . . To God be all the honor."

KENNETH L. WILSON Member of Assembly

Let the record speak for itself! All segments of the population, industry, the farmer, labor, Legislative Leaders, school, health and medical boards, and private citizens approve the record and recommend the re-election of, Assemblyman Wilson.

A. What Does Industry Think?

In 1960, the Builders Institute of Westchester and Putnam Counties presented a plaque to Mr. Wilson as an industry tribute "for his legislative efforts in the interest of home-buyers of the State of New York." The only other legislator ever to receive this tribute was present Lieutenant-Governor, Malcolm Wilson, who was so honored when a member of the Assembly.

In the same year, the Duso Home Builders Association, composed of builders in Dutchess, Ulster, Sullivan and Orange Counties, designated Mr. Wilson as the "Legislator" of the year 1960, because he had been "a prime mover in the enactment of legislation * * * which expanded the opportunities for private home ownership" in the state.

The Ulster County Real Estate Board in a letter to Assemblyman Wilson, thanked him for his legislative efforts in its behalf,

"It indeed gives us a resurgence of confidence in our legislative representatives to find this attitude of cooperation.

Toward the end of the 1959 legislative session, the Secretary of the Shawangunk Valley Insurance Agents Association commended Mr. Wilson for his legislative efforts on behalf of that association. The letter said:

"On behalf of the Shawangunk Valley Insurance Agents Association, we wish to thank you sincerely for your support of Senate Bill 688, which was acted upon favorably in the recent session.'

B. What Does Labor Think?

On March 15, 1960, the President of the Ulster, Sullivan, Delaware and Greene Counties, Building and Construction Trades Council, AFL-CIO, wrote Mr. Wilson:

"I wish to express our appreciation for the courteous reception given to our committee today and for the opportunity to express the views of organized labor

On October 21, 1960, New York State Employees Council No. 50, AFL-CIO, through its Executive Director wrote Mr. Wilson: "Last year you introduced legislation to give New York State employees the benefit of Equal Pay for Equal

"We'd like to take this opportunity to thank you for your help to State workers. We shall advise over 8,000 members in 52 local unions of your efforts in their behalf. "Good luck, and our best wishes for success."

C. What Do Educators and Teachers Think?

In 1959, the Supt. of the Onteora Central School District, on behalf of its Board of Education, paid tribute to Mr. Wilson for his sponsorship of special legislation needed by that district. In concluding his letter the writer said:

"Your courtesy and consideration in assisting us in this matter is greatly appreciated."

New York State Commissioner of Education, James E. Allen,

Jr., too, has paid special tribute to Assemblyman Wilson for his efforts on behalf of public education. In a letter to Mr. Wilson,

"On behalf of the Regents and the State Education Department, I want to commend and to express appreciation to you for the steps taken at the Session on behalf of education in our State. There have been few, if any, years, in which progress was made on so many educational fronts as in this year."

Another prominent educator, Dr. William Jensen, Superintendent of the New York City School system, has seen fit to compliment Mr. Wilson for his legislative interest in educational matters. He wrote our Assemblyman as follows:

"Dear Assemblyman Wilson: 'May I in the name of the Board of Education and myself, thank you for your help during the recent legislative session. Your friendly help and counsel is very much appreciated."

But school teachers, as well as Education Administrators, have been equally lavish in their praise of our Assemblyman's interest in their problems. Literally hundreds of laudatory letters are received annually from teachers, both active and retired. For his sponsorship of an increase in the minimum pension allowance for retired teachers, Assemblyman Wilson received hundreds of "thank-you" letters. Typical is a letter from a retired New Paltz teacher in which she says:

"It is nice to be represented by people like you. Please accept my thanks and best wishes.

In a joint letter from two retired Kingston teachers, they say:

"We appreciate your efforts in behalf of the retired teachers of the State. May we take this opportunity to say 'thank you' for all you did.' Another retired Kingston teacher writes:

"Thank you, you have won the gratitude of every one of the retired teachers in the State and justly so." And a Napanoch teacher says:

"Please accept the gratitude of the Retired Teachers of New York State."

D. What Do Health and Medical Boards Think?

On May 9, 1960, the President of the New York State Board of Public Health Laboratories wrote Assemblyman Wilson:

"I am writing to express our appreciation to you for your efforts in bringing about the successful passage of the Amendments to the Public Health Law. "Thank you again."

And Dr. Herbert Derman, Director of the City of Kingston Laboratory, on March 23, 1960, wrote Mr. Wilson as follows: "I wish to express for all laboratory and hospital people of the state our admiration for your splendid efforts on our behalf."

On June 28, 1960, the Secretary of the State Association of Public Health Laboratories, a state-wide organization, wrote a letter to the effect that at a meeting of that body:

"A resolution was passed expressing the deep appreciation of the Association for your active cooperation and invaluable help in connection with legislation relating to laboratory services."

E. What Do the Farmers Think?

At the request of the New York State Conference Board of Farm Organizations, Assemblyman Wilson sponsored and secured the passage of a bill to allow farm equipment to be moved on public highways without a special license or permit.

The New York State Grange, in the report of its 85th Annual Session, gave express approval of this measure.

In 1960, Assemblyman Wilson, sponsored and had passed an amendment to the Agriculture and Markets Law, substantially reducing the annual license fees paid by fruit farmers who store fresh fruits and vegetables in refrigerated warehouses. This bill was of special benefit to small fruit farmers and received the approbation of the Grange and hundreds of fruit growers in our area.

Only two years ago, the Hudson Valley apple growers were faced with the loss of their entire apple crop due to their inability, because of State and Federal regulations relative to the use of migrant farm workers, to recruit an adequate labor supply to harvest that years' apple crop. At the request of two leading Ulster County fruit growers associations, and in cooperation with Congressman J. Ernest Wharton, Mr. Wilson was able to obtain Federal and State approval, within twenty-four hours, to bring in the requisite number of Jamaican workers to harvest the crop. The apple growers were lavish in their expressions of appreciation. For example, the Mid-Ulster Growers Cooperative, Inc., wrote Mr. Wilson as follows:

"We appreciate your continued interest in and unfailing support of the labor problems which we in Ulster County continually face."

F. What Do the Legislative Leaders Think?

Assemblyman Wilson has now been in the legislature for eight years. Seniority in legislative bodies is important not only because of the experience which is thereby acquired, but because of the prestige and influence which accrues by virtue of seniority. The Speaker of the Assembly, the Hon. Joseph F. Carlino, has paid high compliments to Ken Wilson. In October of 1960, he wrote Mr. Wilson as follows:

"Dear Ken:

"In the eight years that you have served in the Assembly, you have proven to be one of the ablest and most effective legislators on the Albany scene.

"Your vigorous fight for more aid to education for Ulster County and your intimate knowledge of the needs of the people of your community have proven invaluable.

"With the seniority you have now achieved and the important position you occupy on several important committees, your services on the Albany scene will continue to prove invaluable for all the people of your area.

"I strongly hope you are reelected overwhelmingly because we need you at Albany.

JOE

JOSEPH F. CARLINO Speaker, the Assembly"

MR. and MRS. VOTER: Experience does count. Surely, the high praise showered upon Assemblyman Wilson from all quarters for his ability, perseverance and interest in all the problems of our area, pre-eminently qualify him for re-election. You will make no mistake in voting for his re-election.

The election returns, of course. But who totes up these results so you have them scant hours after the polls close? Not the government. (Government returns won't be certified for weeks.) The count is made by almost 10,000 daily and weekly newspapers working hand in hand with Associated Press and United Press International. On election night, tens of thousands of newsmen pick up vote totals at precinct level, feed them up the line to local, state and national headquarters. Computers translate the numbers into hard election facts: who won, who lost. (Generally, the press wire services handle state and national counts; your local newspapers, city and county contests.) Wote counting is only one key role newspapers play in a free election. Newspapers bring you coverage - in unmatched depth - of conventions and campaigns. Newspapers bring you candidates' words in a form you can go back to for checking and rechecking. On editorial pages, newspapers express opinions, explore issues, help you weigh platforms and promises - help you make a well-informed choice. At election time - and all the time - you can bet on newspapers. And never lose.

JUDGE SYDNEY F. FOSTER

In recognition of his outstanding record, the Ulster County Bar Association at its regular meeting on October 31st, without consideration of party affiliation, unanimously adopted a resolution endorsing the candidacy of Sydney F. Foster as Associate Judge of the Court of Appeals.

Judge Foster served as a Justice of the Supreme Court for thirty-one years, longer than any other living jurist. He was appointed to the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court successively by Governors Lehman, Dewey and Harriman and was designated as Presiding Judge of that court for eleven years.

He was twice elected to the Supreme Court in this Judicial District with the support of both major political parties. He was appointed by Governor Rockefeller to fill a vacancy as Associate Judge of the Court of Appeals and is the only Judge on that Court from the Third Judicial District. He now seeks election to that office.

During his long years on the bench Judge Foster has carried out his duties in the administration of justice with marked diligence, ability, courtesy and dignity. The people of Ulster County should support Judge Foster so that the State can continue to enjoy the services of this experienced, conscientious and scholarly Judge.

Receiving no answer to his signal, the captain of the Dei Gratia, his first mate, and some sailors clambered into the ship's boat and pulled for the strange craft.

As they drew nearer, the captain made out the name on her bow, a name that has gone down as a huge question mark in the annals of the sea, "Mary Celeste."

Once aboard, the party called. But their cries were answered only by the eerie flapping of the untrimmed sails. The captain and his men looked in the hold and found it dry, not a sign of a leak. The cargo, alcohol from the West Indies, was intact, every case neatly secured in place.

The puzzle deepened in the crew's quarters, for on the galley stove, already cooked, was the crew's breakfast. None of the personal effects of the crew gave any clues, with the exception of a pipe, half filled, as though its user had laid it aside and rushed on deck.

Back in the captain's quarters, the breakfast table had been set for three, and a halfeaten meal was left on the table. The captain of the Mary Celeste had evidently just cracked a hard boiled egg when whatever happened happened. The egg, neatly cut in half, was uneaten.

Captain Morehouse and his mate immediately suspected some sort of mutiny, but there was nothing in the captain's cabin to indicate violence. His strongbox, with money in it, was untouched. The last entry in the ship's

Says Law Entitles Comment Dawson emphasized the jury was not bound to abide by his views. But he said he was entitled to comment under the law and the state constitution. One point covered by the judge was the testimony of John Patrick Cody, a Minneapolis hoodlum who was a key state witness. Cody testified Finch and Miss Tregoff paid him to kill Mrs. Finch. The defendants say they hired Cody to try to seduce Mrs. Finch or in some other way to get evidence that could be used against her in a divorce action.

"To my mind," the judge said, "the testimony given by the witness John Cody regarding the purpose for which he was employed by the defendants was much more believable than the testimony of the two defendants."
